Class of 1983 Yearbook

Mr. Francis N. "Frank" Hinchey was everything from superintendent to janitor and, perhaps, one of the finest coaches in the history of Vermont schoolboy basketball.

In 1921, Frank Hinchey began teaching and coaching at West Rutland High School. He would coach basketball, football and baseball for many years to come. In 1922, he was appointed principal of our school. A remarkable basketball winning streak in the late 1940's helped turn Mr. Hinchey into a coaching legend in Vermont schoolboy circles. His care and concern for the youth of W.R.H.S. lingered long after his 1964 retirement.

As a symbol of thanks to a man who achieved so much for West Rutland High School, the new gymnasium was named in his honor on December 6, 1974. We would once again like to express our thanks to a man whom we will always remember with deep gratitude and love.

Francis Beaulieu

PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1983

The graduation ceremony and the diploma you receive tell the world that you are ready to go ahead to the next step in your lives. You have passed through an important part of the learning process. If it has been completely successful, the main thing it has taught you is how much more there is to learn.

Graduation is likened to climbing a mountain: It was easier for some of you than for others. But for all of you, it is an accomplishment which your parents and friends applaud. We congratulate you. You have completed an important phase of your education. Use it well.

Sincerely,
Mr. Beaulieu

SCHOOL BOARD

SUPERINTENDENT

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

"Only Time Will Tell" — the motto adopted by the Graduating Class of 1983 is very thought provoking.

As you wind your way through life, you will realize that it is just as easy to acquire the habit of putting every bit of time to good use, as it is to dawdle time away.

Life is too short to be spent in nursing wrongs — real or imagined — done to you. Time is capital, spend it wisely. Keep in mind, Martin Luther King's saying, "The quality, not the longevity, of one's life is what is important."

I wish the Graduating Class of 1983, one and all, prosperity and every success with your future endeavors.

President's Message

To the class of 83, it is now time for us to take that one big, adventurous step in our lives — facing new responsibilities and obligations which will be the fabric of our adult years.

Some members of our class will seek success in the world of employment while others will pursue a college education during the next few years. No matter which road my classmates and I may choose, I know that success will be found for each and every one of us.

When we look back on these years, they will hold many memories of warm friendships and bonds which will remain with us for the rest of our lives.

Although this time in our lives may be sad because of saying "goodbye," it is with joy and elation that we face the coming challenges.

Good Luck
to all,
Tammie Davis

Co-Editors

Because of you, Racheal, we can hold this book in our hands and share these memories together now, and perhaps in the future, to ponder privately. Because of you, Missy, we can see the memories of our senior year vividly and will reflect upon them fondly many times in the years to come.

LEANNE MILLER
COPY EDITOR

DEBBIE BANIA
BUSINESS EDITOR

Because of you, Debbie and Leanne, we will remember that your sharp minds and dedication helped us through the long months and hard work that went into the creation of this yearbook.

MR. LOWELL WAKKER
PHOTOGRAPHY CONSULTANT

Mr. Wakker, because of you we learned everything we needed to know about photography. You were there for us when we sought your guidance and advice.

To everyone who helped the 1983 Yearbook materialize, I thank you sincerely. I would also like to express my gratitude to the hard working and dedicated people on this page who shared so much of their time and talents creating a yearbook as successful as this has been.

Class Will

MIKE AMSDEN — Wills his ability to shoot his 44 mag. one handed to John Harvey.
 DEBBIE BANIA — Wills five cases of tape to W.R.H.S. to put a dent in the cases of tape she used over the years. (So don't worry Mr. Candon).
 SUZZANE BANIA — Wills to Mr. Deuel and Mr. Remington the ability to find somebody new to pick on when she's gone, hopefully it'll be someone with a distinct walk.
 JUDY BELOCK — Wills to Jackie Smith her ability to stay calm in typing class next year. Good Luck your going to need it.
 DARREN BIDGOOD — Wills all his good brain cells to Peter Dowd to replace his spent ones.
 MARY BRADLEY — Wills her ability to skip school as many times as she did without getting caught to Liz Razanouski.
 DAVID BROWN — Wills his patience to his father to be able to put up with the kids on the bus.
 LEE BRUSO — Wills to Karen Chapman better luck with puppies than what she had, and hopes she never brings Toby to field hockey practice.
 SHAWN BURNS — Wills to Jake Bristol the ability to ride his motorcycle around town and not get caught.
 TOM CALLAHAN — Wills to Henry Daley better luck on swamp fires next year!
 BERNICE CARROLL — Wills to her little sister Lisa, the ability the ability to get better grades than she did, in Mr. Remington's history class. Good Luck Lisa. You're going to need it.
 CLIFF CRESSY — Wills his outstanding ability to keep his motorcycle in running condition to Larry Bristol.
 LORI CZARNECKI — Wills to Judy Czarnecki the ability to have fun on the Voc. bus as she did, and to her brother Billy, the ability to get along with Mr. Candon.
 TAMMIE DAVIS — Wills to her brother, Michael, the ability to survive the wrath of the administration.
 BONNIE DRINWATER — Wills Tina Coccia, the ability to see Brian more that she did, also to give him her own letter. Best of Luck and grades to her brother Chuck.
 LORENA DUMAS — Wills to any junior, her back seat at Cousins with Bud.
 RACHEAL DUPREY — Wills to Mr. Remington's upcoming students the ability to say ain't in his class and not get caught. Good Luck!
 RON FABIAN — Wills plenty of good luck to Dan Budd and Mike Pombar in cross-country running, you'll need it if the jinx holds out!
 KEN GODZIK — Wills his baseball experience and MVP qualities to any junior who has to fill the shoes of this star.
 LORI HERRICK — Wills to Mr. McMorrow his 1981-82 college handbook which he never could find.
 JEFF HOOKER — Wills his ability to always be eating and never get fat to Mr. Caliguri.
 DAVID JANKOWSKI — Wills to Mr. Deuel and Mr. Salengo his hunting and fishing abilities, they need them!
 KEVIN JOHNSON — Wills his ability to party during baseball, basketball, and soccer and not get kicked off the team to Henry Daley.
 TOM LACZ — Wills to Andy Molaski and Steve Flynn the ability to work on their snowmobiles without the help of Eddie Taggart.

Class Will

JULIE LINCOLN — Wills to anyone who wants it, her ability to forget things at the most opportune times. (Right, Mr. Loomis?).
 MARK LOSO — Wills his ability to make people laugh to Adires Swan. (Keep em laughing, "Swanny").
 LEANNE MILLER — Wills her ability to concentrate on studies to her brother Peter and her love of running to Simone Therrien.
 JOHN MOLASKI — Wills to his brother Andy the subaru. Hope you have better luck with it than I did.
 JOHN MOODY — Wills his ability to fool around in class and still pass with a "B" average for the year, to anyone who wants it.
 BILL MOODY — Wills his ability to skip Mr. Remington's class and still pass to Jeff Moody.
 TINA NAPOLITANO — Wills her locker to Kelley Herbert, her field hockey uniform #22 to Kristen Caliguri, and to Mr. Caliguri and Mr. Loomis, a life's supply of unbreakable lab equipment for future students with the same lab techniques as she used to have.
 FELICIA NIENALTOWSKI — Wills her ability to "turn on" a computer to anyone that wants the experience.
 MONICA NIENALTOWSKI — Wills all the fun she had her senior year and more . . . to her dear, sweet sister MaryAnn and Diane Panerello, and to the 1983 Field Hockey Team all the luck there is, to win the State Championship. Our Team never won last year.
 KAREN PAWLACZYK — Wills Hope Loughan to Debbie Center so Debbie will have a partner in field hockey when she leaves.
 KAREN PLUTA — Wills to Mr. Remington one week as President of the United States to take him away from his stressful position at school.
 MICHELLE POMBAR — Wills her car and the ability to get it jumped whenever necessary to her brother.
 JOE RAZANOUSKI — Wills his V.I.C.A. activities to anyone who wants them.
 MATHEW RAZANOUSKI — Wills his locker #40 to his brother Mike so that no one can throw him out of it, and his soccer abilities to whoever wants them, if they know what I mean!
 MISSY SALENGO — Wills to her brother Jim the good sense not to be editor of the '85 yearbook.
 STEVE SCOTT — Wills his ability to play hoop to Tom Bania and to beat on Mr. Candon's face as much as he did during the season. Maybe next year your nose will break.
 DAVID SERRANI — Wills his driving ability to anyone who dares to take it!
 DANNY SMITH — Wills his ability to get along with Big Jim to anyone who thinks they can handle his sarcasm and his defensive ability in basketball to Tom Bania for next year's hoop season because God knows he'll need it.
 FRANK STRZELEC — Wills his car or what's left of it to his brother Scott so he can make it on time to school.
 BRENDA TYMINSKI — Wills her memories of W.R.H.S. to anyone who wants them because I certainly don't, and to her brother Tony the ability to graduate.
 MICHELLE WETHERBY — Wills to Stacey Willis her talking ability in class and not get caught. See how you do, Stace.

Class Prophecy

by
Leanne Miller

It was the day of the class of 1983's twentieth reunion and MISSY SALENGO was sitting at one of the booths in her nightclub, the "Serpentine," reminiscing about the past twenty years. So much had happened since she came up with the idea to build a nightclub at Westside's favorite party spot, Salengo's Quarry. She didn't realize when the idea hit her that she would own the hottest nightspot in New England. She also didn't realize that she would end up hosting the class reunion at a place that many of her classmates had helped to make a reality.

When the brainstorm first came to her, Missy's first thought was to apply for a loan. After several unsuccessful attempts, she finally was able to get a loan from the Procter Bank, thanks to bank president MARY BRADLEY. With the money in hand, Missy called good friend KEN GODZIK to design the nightclub for her. Ken, now a major league baseball star and World Series M.V.P., is an architect during the off-season. He had no trouble with the plans because Missy knew exactly what she wanted.

Next, Missy called RON FABIAN, who owns his own excavating and contracting business, to do the digging for the new night club. She also asked him who he would recommend to do the actual building. Ron suggested the Lacz Construction Company, owned by former classmate TOM LACZ, since the company had a good reputation for doing fine work. Missy then was able to get some help from STEVE SCOTT and MATT RAZANOUSKI. Both being electricians, they volunteered to do all of the nightclub's wiring for her since they both had some time off from their other jobs. Steve plays for the Boston Celtics and Matt is a major league baseball star who is now a free agent. Also, no good nightclub is complete without a good stereo system so she enlisted the help of JOHN MOLASKI and MARK LOSO to build a customized system for the club. John and Mark also do such work for celebrities as well.

"Hey Mis, wake up. The guests are arriving." Missy jumped a little at the sound of LORENA DUMAS's voice. Lorena is now a successful bartender at a big night club in New York City. Missy asked Lorena and MONICA NIENALTOWSKI, also a successful bartender in the Big Apple, to tend bar for the reunion and they happily agreed. The first person to arrive was TINA NAPOLITANO, now president of a large food manufacturing company that was catering the affair. Next came BILL MOODY, now a Hollywood stuntman, who Missy had asked to be the bouncer at the reunion. Next, FELICIA NIENALTOWSKI arrived escorted by a gorgeous male model. Felicia is a famous fashion designer and had just flown in from Paris. Behind her came FRANK STRZELEC in a chauffeured limousine. Frank, now president of the Grand Union, was escorted by two gorgeous women.

It was not long before Dr. LEANNE MILLER arrived. Now a veterinarian in California caring for the pets of famous celebrities, Leanne is also the author of the bestselling book, Gone to the Dogs. She was followed by her cousin KAREN PLUTA who is Tom Selleck's private nurse. MICHELLE POMBAR arrived next. Michele is now a physical therapist whose patients consist mostly of dancers and athletes. CLIFTON CRESSY and DAVID BROWN came soon after. Cliff owns a tractor manufacturing company whose products have now replaced John Deere. Dave is now a wealthy Texas cattle rancher.

JULIE LINCOLN and her doctor husband came after Dave and Cliff. Julie is the director of nursing at the Mayo Clinic where her husband also works. The next to arrive was DAVID JANKOWSKI who is the owner of a gun manufacturing company that makes the famous "D.J. Special." He had just returned from a safari in Africa. TOM CALLAHAN followed David in. Tom is an NBA basketball pro now. DANNY SMITH drove up next. He owns a sporting goods company now. It is supplying much of the equipment the U.S. athletes will use in the next Olympics. MICHELE WETHERBY, herself a former member of the Olympic track team, arrived after him. Michele is now a successful physical therapy assistant.

Former senior class president TAMMIE DAVIS was the next guest to arrive. Tammie, the lawyer who represented Elizabeth Taylor in her latest divorce, is running for the U.S. Senate and everyone wished her good luck. Two of her well wishers were BERNICE CARROLL and LORI CZARNECKI who are both legal secretaries for members of the Kennedy clan. BONNIE DRINWATER and BRENDA TYMINSKI also wished Tammie luck and both offered to do her hair for her next public appearance. Bonnie and Brenda are now famous hair stylists who cater mostly to the rich.

The reunion was briefly interrupted by the sound of roaring engines and squealing tires. Everyone looked to see who it was. It was just MIKE AMSDEN and SHAWN BURNS driving into the parking lot. Mike is a drag racing pro now and Shawn is the National Motocross Champion so their entrance was not unusual. Driving in quietly behind them was a very tan KAREN PAWLACZYK. She had just returned from Hawaii after the grand opening of the newest addition to her chain of health spas called the The Paw Spa. As everyone was outside talking, a huge Cadillac pulled into the parking lot. It was JUDY BELOCK and her millionaire husband. The two of them had just returned from Europe where Judy had been on a shopping spree. LORI HERRICK, now president of General Electric, drove in behind her.

Missy shuffled everyone back into the nightclub for drinks and dancing. As the party progressed, JOE RAZANOUSKI arrived. Joe is a very successful businessman and owns his own company. Soon after RACHEAL DUPREY arrived in her new ferrari. Racheal is now the layout editor for "Playgirl." Soon after, the foursome of LEE BRUSO, KEVIN JOHNSON, JOHN MOODY, and DAVE SERRANI made their entrance. They now have their own printing company in Washington, D.C. called "The Buck Stops Here." It caters to politicians.

Just then, DEBBIE BANIA and SUZANNE BANIA rushed in. The two cousins are now private detectives and have their own firm, Bania and Bania. Missy asked them to track down JEFF HOOKER and DARREN BIDGOOD since she was unable to reach them. Debbie and Suzanne came to report that Darren and Jeff were both in Washington working with the government on a highly secret project. All Sue and Debbie could say about the project was that it had something to do with the welding tool Darren invented and the special bolt Jeff invented.

Now that all of the class of 1983 was accounted for, the party continued on into the night. As the last guest was leaving many hours later, Missy began to wonder what the next twenty years would bring. Only time will tell . . .

A Time to Remember

By E. Cunningham

I'm going to miss this old school . . .
For a million different reasons . . .
I remember what it was like to be new around here,
The place seemed a little bigger then,
And though I never admitted it, a whole lot scarier!

I remember searching hallways and stairways,
And auditoriums filled with unfamiliar faces.
Hoping to find someone to share my confusion with . . .
And feeling so grateful whenever anyone smiled.

What an assortment of unforgettable characters I've met here!
There were classmates I liked right from the start . . .
And those who took a little getting used to . . .
There were teachers I loved, and teachers I survived . . .
There were upper-class celebrities who awed me
With their style, and lower-class innocents who Appeared to stand in awe of mine.

Most of all, there were the good friends I made here . . .
And all the times together we shared.
I recall times when we won, and times when we lost,
Times when we worried together, and
Times when we celebrated . . .
But how do you say thanks for a mind-full of beautiful memories?

I remember autumns, when all the excitement
In the world flashed between two goal posts . . .
Winters warm with the glow of our holiday spirits . . .
Springtimes that dazzled us with the promise of freedom . . .
And long, lazy summer vacations when not doing much of Anything was our favorite group activity.

Looking back, I'm amazed that so many crazy and Colorful things could have happened in just these few years . . .
But I'm glad they all happened to me!

It won't be easy saying good-bye to this school . . .
To these friends, but I have so much more to learn about the World and about myself, and it's time to get started.

I only know that wherever I go,
Whatever I do,
The days I've spent right here will always be
A really special part of my life . . .
A time to remember!

1983 Winter Carnival

This year, the Winter Carnival was held the first week in February and, despite the lack of snow, was still a huge success. The week began with a dance on Saturday night and various events throughout the week included: Water-balloon throwing, 4-legged races, volleyball, mud soccer, hall decorating, 45 tournaments and some unusual dress up days. All the finals and judgments were held on Friday, with the seniors and the freshmen becoming co-winners of the carnival.

ADVERTISEMENTS

*There Is No Other
Way We Can Say
Goodbye*

Ode to the Seven

To Danny #5, Steve #35, Kevin #33, Tom #21, Matt #42, Jeff and Ken:

In sports together for eight short years
Full of victories, defeats — smiles and tears
You always fought a very good fight —
Never gave up, but played with your might.
— So many memories, so many dreams —
And now, you've heard the buzzer, for the last time
Sadly declare a somber good-bye.
Your last victory is over, and the crowd has roared
Its final grand tribute, to you the Golden Horde.

Congratulations to All of You, and a future of success and much happiness for each one of you.
